Remembrance Sunday

10th November 2024

Welcome to our church for this Sunday's service; do stay for tea or coffee afterwards, we look forward to meeting you. If the morning service is the celebration of the Eucharist, all are welcome to make their communion here. Or if you prefer to receive a blessing, please come forward to the rail with arms by your sides.

Collect

O God, whose will it is to hold both heaven and earth in a single peace: let the design of your great love shine on the waste of our wraths and sorrows; and give peace to your Church, peace among nations, peace in our homes, and peace in our hearts; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end.

Lectionary

Jonah 3: 1-5, 10

A reading from the book of Jonah

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, 'Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.' So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, 'Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!' And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

Psalm 62: 6-14

R God alone is my rock and my salvation.

6 For God alone my soul in silence waits; truly, my hope is in him.

7 He alone is my rock and my salvation,

my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.

8 In God is my safety and my honour; God is my strong rock and my refuge.

R

9 Put your trust in him always, O people, pour out your hearts before him, for God is our refuge.

10 Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, even those of low estate cannot be trusted.

11 On the scales they are lighter than a breath, all of them together.

R

12 Put no trust in extortion; in robbery take no empty pride; though wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.

13 God has spoken once, twice have I heard it, that power belongs to God.

14 Steadfast love is yours, O Lord, for you repay everyone according to his deeds.

R God alone is my rock and my salvation.

Hebrews 9: 24-28

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Mark 1: 14-20

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.'

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Post Communion

Living God, in the eucharist you fill us with new hope. May the power of your love, which we have known in word and sacrament, continue your saving work among us, and bring us to the joy you promise. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Intercessions

Please pray for healing and comfort for:

Alan, Dorotheea, David, Elizabeth, Valerie, Ina, Liz, Harry John, Danut, Mihaela, Alan, Janet, Christina, Robert, John, Sarah, Ashley, Christine, Jeremy, Michael, John, Janet and Paul.

Faithful departed:

Marie Hamilton, Andrew Buntin and Archibald McDonald.

Reflection

Gracious Father, we pray for the peace of our world: for all national leaders, that they may have wisdom to know and courage to do, what is right.

For all people; that their hearts may be turned to you in the search for righteousness and truth.

For those who work to improve international relationships; that they may find the true way of reconciliation.

For all those who suffer as a result of war; the injured and disabled, the mentally distressed and anguished, the homeless refugee and the hungry; those who mourn their dead, and especially for those who are without hope or friend to sustain them in their sorrow.

This we ask in the Name of Jesus, who calls us all into his peaceable kingdom. Amen.
